

LAMBTON TO HURON

AT WESTERN PATHWAY

Huron University College offers students an exceptional liberal arts experience.

To study at Huron means to become part of one of the oldest university communities in Canada – but also one of the most forward-thinking, globally oriented and intellectually challenging. No matter what you choose to study at Huron, your degree will provide the knowledge and practical skills needed for the 21st century.

Huron is located next to, and is partnered with, Western University. Therefore, Huron students have access to all that Huron has to offer as well as all that is offered by Western. This partnership provides students with the best of both worlds – study in a small university community while enjoying all the benefits of one of the largest universities in Canada. Huron students will graduate with a degree from the University of Western Ontario.

WHAT'S NEXT?

Step 1

Accept your Offer

After you have received an Offer of Admission, you must respond on OUAC by the deadline provided in your offer package.

Step 2

Meet Your Admission Conditions

If you are currently registered at Lambton College, you will have admission conditions that must be met to retain your offer. These conditions will be listed in your Offer of Admission.

Step 3

Submit Final Official Transcript

Once you have completed the Liberal Arts Diploma, you must request to have an official transcript sent to Huron's Admission Office. Once the final transcript is received and admission conditions are met, you will have your transfer credit and scholarship amount finalized.

Step 4

Register for a Summer Orientation & Academic Registration SOAR Session

Once you have accepted your offer, you can register for a SOAR Session to select your courses. These sessions are hosted in June and July and are designed for students to select courses, meet fellow classmates and learn about Huron's Support Services. If you are starting in January, you will be contacted for a registration date in December.
